- The House will reconvene for its 17th Legislative Day on Tuesday, February 15 at 10:30 a.m.
- 10 bills / resolutions are expected to be debated on the floor.

Today on the Floor

Motions to Agree

HB 841 East Cobb, City of; incorporate

Bill Summary: House Bill 841 authorizes a local referendum for the creation of the city of East Cobb. The referendum, by call of the Cobb County election superintendent, will be on the ballot in a special election on the date of the 2022 General Primary.

The government for the city is composed of a city council consisting of a mayor and six council members each serving four-year terms. The mayor and city council members are elected through a non-partisan municipal general election held biennially in odd years.

The city council is authorized to appoint a city manager to act as the chief administrative officer of the city. The charter creates a municipal court to be presided over by a chief judge.

HB 1044 Local government; creation of regional development authorities; provide

Bill Summary: House Bill 1044 allows for the creation of regional development authorities to be created and activated by a group of three to five contiguous counties. The bill stipulates that at least half of the members of the governing body from each county have completed a basic economic development training course certified by the Department of Community Affairs. Each regional development authority will be an active authority with a board of directors that meets quarterly, develops an operational business plan, owns property lying within one or more of the participating counties, and maintains an active agreement for sharing expenses and proceeds. A county cannot belong to more than one regional development authority. The bill provides for a tax credit for each new quality job for qualifying investment properties for the lowest tier participating county within the regional development authority.

Bill Summary: House Resolution 664 is a conveyance resolution for properties located in six counties, conveying property owned by the State of Georgia or amending those conveyances, as follows:

Article 1 amends the lease between the State of Georgia, under the custody of the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities and Coastal Center for Developmental Services, Inc., over approximately 2.232 acres in Chatham County for an additional 50-year term under the same terms and conditions as the current lease for the consideration of $1,000 annually.

Article 2 surpluses approximately one acre in DeKalb County, being a portion of Panola Road Park-and Ride, under the custody of the State Road and Tollway Authority, by competitive bid for fair market value or to a local government or state entity for fair market value.

Article 3 leases approximately 2,224 square feet of improved property in Fulton County, under the custody of the Department of Public Safety and being a portion of the current Department of Public Safety Headquarters, to Justice Federal Credit Union for a term of three years with an option to renew for another three years for fair market value. A new headquarters building is being constructed on the Department of Public Safety property. Upon completion, the leased premises will be reduced to approximately 1,000 square feet and be relocated to the new headquarters.

Article 4 may release of restriction and conveys approximately 350 acres in Glynn County, under the custody of the Department of Natural Resources, formerly known as the Youth Estate, to Morningstar

Treatment Services, Inc., for fair market value.

Article 5 surpluses approximately 0.926 of an acre of improved property in Hall County, under the custody of the Department of Agriculture, commonly known as the Gainesville District Office, by competitive bid for fair market value or to a local government or state entity for fair market value.

Article 6 conveys approximately 50.08 acres of improved property in Sumter County, under the custody of the Department of Juvenile Justice, commonly known as the Sumter Youth Development Center, to Sumter County Board of Commissioners for $10, so long as the property is used for a public purpose in perpetuity and Sumter County Board of Commissioners does not take, nor fail to take, any action which would cause any outstanding tax-exempt bonds to be deemed private activity bonds or arbitrage bonds under the tax Code, and does not use the above-described property for any non-governmental purpose, or any purpose that would give rise to private business use within the meaning of the tax Code, any of which cause a reversion to the State of Georgia.
